PEABODY STUDENT COUNCIL

SANBORN STUDENT COUNCIL
We the eighth graders of the Class of '83 bequeath the following:

To Betsy, my paper shoes and my job as a shoe salesman... Our great reputation to carry on... The bell system... The girls' bathroom... To Mark, all my dresses... SSR to the newcomers... My sanity... My earplugs for Mr. Jones' class... My locker to anyone who will take it... My fingerprints on the locker... The lack of water in the bathrooms... Old, smelly corroded lunches in the lockers... Nothing... All the bumper stickers and books in my locker... My stolen tests to new eighth graders... All my teachers for the poor seventh graders coming back next year (Ha! Ha! Ha!)... My two-year-old peanut butter and jelly sandwiches in our locker... To Mr. Scott, my Lewis... Mark D. and Joe M. for another year... I and some friends leave punk rock and craziness... I, Timmy R., being of just sound body, leave a two-quart jar of prime vintage Chunky Vegetable Soup to Leon B... We leave nothing to anybody anytime anywhere for any reason... My grades... My loss of hearing with Mr. Jones... To Brent, my pens and pencil... To Rick T., my weights... My two-year-old torn Nike... Brad Sage's pink shirt and Dave's clothes for research... My P.J.'s to this unlawful school with bad words... The Middle School lunches to starving nations of the world... Mr. Faison's polka-dotted tie to a clown... We will Edward... I, Kristin Lucido, will my Bermuda Shorts, my Argyle Socks, and my Penny Loafers... I leave the scribbly buzzer system... I leave these walls, finally and gratefully at that... I leave the dead plant in Social Studies, the peanut butter jar full of icy frozen gypsy moths, my nose, and my two-year-old crayfish to Mrs. F... All school lunches to sixth graders... A pint of type O blood... Mr. Chamberlin's jokes to the seventh graders... A life supply of bad paragraphs to Mrs. Duffey... Pencils to Mr. Pod... School books to Mr. Meeker... English vocabulary notebook to Mrs. Duffey... Pens to Mr. Pod... All dictionaries to Mrs. Duffey... Ms. Mohnihan to anyone but me... My locker to the Forest Preservation Organization... My fluorescent blue locker to any sixth or seventh grader... My colored chalk to Mr. Lakie... To Nollie, the cat stuck in the tree... Myself to Robbie!... Very happily and quickly...
