We, the class of 2002, dedicate our yearbook to...

Mr. Grant

Mr. Grant, the art teacher that can be both scary and humorous and make it work; whether it is the issue of spiders or sneaky woodchucks. The man who always wears those stylish gray lab coats and carries a packet of pens in his pocket protector. Yup, that's our Mr. Grant. Mal Grant isn't just another teacher that grades us, nope, he does much more than that. He is a man who always tells us to go from light to dark. The man that always seems to connect art to some other odd topic. Art isn't all Mal teaches. He teaches about love, life, and the wild west. Mr. Grant has back problems. He left in early January for surgery. We all hope that our Mr. Grant is doing rather well, and that he comes back as soon as possible. A great American once said, "A sane man can do many things. A crazy man can do many great things." This is how we feel about you, Mr. Grant. We're not calling you crazy, just plain great. We miss you and love you.

Thoughts During Class

Why do people say ‘like’ so much? Fire drill PLEASE!
HUH?
I bet that person has gum but won’t give it to me.
Can I have some Tylenol?
What shows are on tonight.
How many bottles are on Mr. Stern’s windowsill?
I wish I were at the mall.
Why are we learning about a computer game? (Stella)
How could 48 minutes seem like 48 hours?
I’m hungry but I have no money.
Does my hair look as bad as hers?
What about recess?
Strawberry Shortcake.
I wonder if hamsters supply Massachusetts with energy by running on those little wheels?
The ceilings are mighty fuzzy.
He/she is so hot!

Teacher Thoughts

Why aren’t they paying attention? - Mr. Stern
I hope everyone is prepared for my test - Mr. Podgurski
I hope they get the big picture - Ms. McNeil Today’s going to be a great day! They’ll love this lesson - Mrs. Weldon Oh no! I have to answer more question box questions - Mr. Wenstrom Quelle classe extraordinaire! - Mrs. Neuman
I wish that some kids would use uncommon sense - Mr. Wood
Never listen to WAAF - Mr. Dimare
What went wrong today? - Mr. Cadigan
Come on my sista, you know this - Mr. Miller

Quiz.....

ARE YOU READY FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL?

1. You have a major English report due and you have three weeks to complete it. You start working:
   a.) The day the assignment is given, you finish in the first week.
   b.) Periodically throughout the three weeks, pacing yourself.
   c.) The night before its due.
   d.) Who cares about English reports anyway?

2. Report cards just came out and you have to get it signed. You:
   a.) Proudly show it to your parents and you post it on your refrigerator, and bring it in as soon as possible.
   b.) Show your parents but don't make a big deal out of it.
   c.) Get grounded by your parents for your bad grades.
   d.) Forgo your mom's signature...hey, that's something you're good at.

3. For homework each night you:
   a.) Do every subject as thoroughly as possible, and finish projects due in another month.
   b.) Spend only the required 30 minutes on each subject.
   c.) Do it on the bus every morning.
   d.) What homework?

4. When asked about future plans you reply:
   a.) I'm going to graduate high school as valedictorian, go to Harvard Law School and major in Law and Business, get a Ph. D. in Physics and the Ancient Egyptian ruins, go on to be a lawyer and stock broker doing archaeological missions on the side.
   b.) I'll definitely go to college, and probably become a marine biologist.
   c.) I'll cross that bridge when I come to it....
   d.) Dunno.

5. In High School you plan to take:
   a.) Honors Biology, Accelerated Spanish/French, and Sophomore Honors Geometry
   b.) Honors Math and Standard Earth Science.
   c.) Phys. Ed. and some Art class.
   d.) We have a choice?

6. After school you:
   a.) Go to the daily Chess Club meetings.
   b.) Run to the gym to work out to keep your body in shape.
   c.) Report to the science room to make-up another test.
   d.) Sit at home and turn on the television while pigging out on Cheetos and Pepsi.
7. To learn your schedule it takes you:
   a.) At the most one day, you can't even imagine being late to a class.
   b.) Not long, considering that you keep it in your bag for reference.
   c.) Definitely know it by the end of the year.
   d.) What schedule?

8. How much do you know about CCHS?
   a.) Who built it and everything else there is to know about it.
   b.) A lot; I've been taking math classes there since Sixth Grade.
   c.) Been to a chorus concert once.
   d.) Wait, it's in Carlisle, right?

9. When getting to your classes, you:
   a.) Are three minutes before the bell.
   b.) Walk in the classroom right as the bell rings.
   c.) Quickly sit in the seat closest to the door five minutes after the bell rings, as the teacher turns his head.
   d.) Come halfway through the period, with the excuse that you stopped to help someone up the stairs.

10. During class you think about:
    a.) Gosh, I hope this class never ends!
    b.) This teacher has some really interesting things to say.
    c.) He/She is really hot!

   Hmm, I think...

You are set to live your life alone forever, with no education to get a job. You are shooting up on time to a class sometimes will help, unless you're shooting up on time to a class sometimes will help. Try coming out of your books and finding opportunities, not as if the world hates you. You need a few friends, look at life as full of opportunity, not as if the world hates you. You need a few friends, look at life as full of opportunity, not as if the world hates you.

Your score is between 0-5: You need to go to the social sciences. Keep participating in class once in a while, you'd like to.

Your score is between 6-15: You might want to try harder at school, and smart you'll be in the high school. Don't worry, you'll make at least the honor roll. You are social, you're a social science.

Your score is between 16-25: You have the key characteristics for the already set academically. Set social and physical goals for yourself, you are friends and participating in classes, even if you're a little bit high school is also about plan to get in the college. Don't worry, you'll make at least the honor roll. You are probably ready for the high school.

I Will Remember You
Sarah McLachlan

(Music and Lyrics by Sarah McLachlan, Seamus Egan, and Dave Merenda)

Originally featured on the motion picture soundtrack
"The Brothers McMullen" (Unforscene, 1995)

I will remember you
Will you remember me?
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
Remember the good times that we had?
I let them slip away from us when things got bad
How clearly I first saw you smilin' in the sun
Wanna feel your warmth upon me, I wanna be the one
I will remember you
Will you remember me?
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
I'm so tired but I can't sleep
Standin' on the edge of something much too deep
It's funny how we feel so much but we cannot say a word
We are screaming inside, but we can't be heard
But I will remember you
Will you remember me?
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
I'm so afraid to love you, but more afraid to loose
Clinging to a past that doesn't let me choose
Once there was a darkness, deep and endless night
You gave me everything you had, oh you gave me light
And I will remember you
Will you remember me?
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
And I will remember you
Will you remember me?
Don't let your life pass you by
Weep not for the memories
Weep not for the memories
