Appreciations

The C.M.S. Class of 2009 wants to thank the Social Studies department for their desire to teach and inspire us about our past, present, and future. We appreciate their enthusiasm and involvement in our daily routine. Thank you!!
Some adults say they would give anything to be a kid again. There is one teacher at CMS who is still a kid at heart. Mr. Cadigan has a special place in the hearts of the eighth graders at the Peabody building. He is a perfect fit to work with them. Sometimes boys need to be boys and Mr. Cadigan helps them understand that bad decisions lead to consequences. He teaches his students how to deal with life's flaws and pleasures, but when students struggle, he is there to assist you. In his spare time, he cooks for his family and goes fishing with friends on his boat. Mr. Cadigan always said that working with kids is easier than working with adults because they are more straightforward. That obviously was before he met our class. When you walk down the halls of Peabody, the air is filled with the sounds of students calling out for "Mr. C", "Kitty", or "Hey You". Whatever you call him, the 2008-2009 CMS class at Peabody will always remember Mr. Cadigan.

Everyone is able to relate to the feeling of being stuck in a never-ending class, but Ms. Welburn has a knack for turning the task of memorizing verbs into a fun game. Both Sanborn and Peabody students enjoy her enthusiasm while teaching a foreign language and its culture. Growing up in Wellesley, MA (a town near Concord), Ms. Welburn already knows much about her students. She always wanted to be a teacher, and while at first pursued English, at the last minute she changed her mind and decided to teach French. In her spare time, Ms. Welburn enjoys running, practicing yoga, playing floor hockey, taking fun classes, and listening to acoustic folk music. She also enjoys time with family and friends. Being a French teacher, Ms. Welburn travels to France on summer vacations, coming back to CMS with cultural and fun stories. She has also coached field hockey and lacrosse, and comes to school early to prep her students for the National French Exam. Ms. Welburn deserves to be recognized with this dedication for the joy she spreads throughout the Concord Middle School.

The CMS community would like to warmly welcome the new staff to our school. We have high hopes that they will stay long and enlighten our students while having fun!

After working at Concord Middle School for 21 years, Mrs. Aldrich has decided the time has come to retire. In her retirement, she is looking forward to traveling and spending more time with her family. In addition to teaching her FACS and Health classes, Mrs. Aldrich also ran Student Leaders for many years. She enjoyed watching the students try to change things they didn't like or agree with. She has also run Chef's Club. Teaching was something that she always wanted to do because she loves working with kids. The students are her favorite part of the job at CMS. She has enjoyed watching the students of CMS grow, learn and try new things. The staff and students will miss her very much, but we are grateful for the time Mrs. Aldrich has spent teaching the students of the Concord Middle School.

Hi. I suffer from amnesia. Do I come here often?

You were born without a heart but you stole mine.

Hey, somebody passed gas, let's get out of here.

Look at his/her shirt label. When they say, "What are you doing?", say "Checking to see if you were made in heaven."

My love for you is like a caged tiger... I can't control it.

Are you a tamale? 'Cause you're hot.

Excuse me, I think you have something in your eye. Nope, it's just a sparkle.

Hello, I'm a thief, and I'm here to steal your heart.

I've been noticing you not noticing me.

Hello. Cupid called. He says to tell you that he needs my heart back.

Why do you keep fallin'? I'm fallin' for you...

I’m a shopaholic.
I’m always worried that my dad won’t come home one day.

My dad wants me to be a football player but I like ballet better.
I can’t wait to leave Concord.
I can’t believe I ate the whole thing.

I <3 the 8-Seal Tusk art section

I put down my friends so that I feel better about myself.

People think I’m an F student, but I actually get A’s.

I sneak out of the house just so that I’m by myself.

Everyone thinks I’m just a “nerd” but I want to be a professional DJ when I grow up.

I get butterflies in my stomach when she walks by.

8th Grade Tribute

I've been waiting for my dreams
To turn into something
I could believe in
And looking for that
Magic rainbow
On the horizon
I couldn't see it
Until I let go
Gave into love and watched all the bitterness burn
Now I'm coming alive
Body and soul
And feelin' my world start to turn

And I'll taste every moment
And live it out loud
I know this is the time,
This is the time to be
More than a name
Or a face in the crowd
I know this is the time
This is the time of my life
Time of my life

And I'm out on the edge of forever
Ready to run
I'm keeping my feet on the ground
Arms open wide
Face to the sun

I'll taste every moment
And live it out loud
I know this is the time,
This is the time to be
More than a name
Or a face in the crowd
I know this is the time
This is the time of my life
Time of my life

Holding onto things that vanished
Into the air
Left me in pieces
But now I'm rising from the ashes
Finding my wings
And all that I needed
Was there all along
Within my reach
As close as the beat of my heart
