THE MOONS OF C.M.S.
A Poem for Mrs. Trela

A special woman,
caring and kind.
Another like her,
no one could find.

Everyday she would greet us,
Who were we to know,
it wouldn't last for a while.

The news hit us hard,
most were in shock.
Some were in tears,
all hearts were like rock.

I could not cry,
the tears would not come.
I wanted them to,
but my body was numb.

As it slowly sinks in,
the tears start to pour.
I keep asking myself,
Why her? What for?

She taught us to be responsible,
she taught us to try.
She taught us to believe in ourselves,
and now we must cry.

We cry for the love,
which she gave to all of us.
It is because of that love,
that we make such a fuss.

But a fuss MUST be made,
it's our turn to give.
She gave us her all,
and yet she did not live.

Self-Importance is the lesson,
which meant the most to me.
Her spirit is with us right now,
so let it always be.

by Lindsay Macdonald in honor of Faith Trela my teacher and friend
We, the eighth grade class of 1994 dedicate this yearbook in loving memory to our ducky teacher, Mrs. Faith Trela. She spent twenty great years at the Concord Middle School as an extraordinary teacher and a wonderful friend. Mrs. Trela will be missed by all and never be forgotten.
Dedication to Mrs. Horne

We, the eighth grade class of 1994, dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Betty Horne. She served as the secretary for the Peabody Building and has served the people of the Concord Middle School for twenty-nine years. Through the years, she has been there for us when we needed her to lend us money for lunch when we forgot, to let us use the phone when we needed to, and most of all, to be a friend to all of us. She was always there for us "little brats", and we cannot forget her, for she was a part of our lives. We all hope she has a happy and enjoyable retirement. We will miss her dearly.

CATEGORIES

22-30 A TRUE GOSSIP!!!!
You care more about your feelings than anyone else's. You jump at the chance to start rumors and ruin people's reps. At this rate, your only friend will be yourself.

11-21 CHATTER-BOX!!!!
You have respect for people's feelings in some situations. But when you know a good laugh will come out of it, you don't hold back.

10 THE LITTLE ANGEL!!!!
You could keep a secret from court. Even the feelings of your enemies count. This could be a good thing, but hey, when opportunity knocks, at least open the door.

You'll never believe what I just saw....

REMEMBER WHEN

Mr. Wensstrom said, "I like girls. I like girls A LOT!" during class. Gladys F. and Jemile L. had the Wet Willie stage. There was a sub in English and Laura N. and Kristin B. couldn't stop laughing. Mrs. Cotter was Miss Glynn. Carole C. scored a field hockey goal this year in the last two seconds of the game. We watched the "Am I Normal" video in 8th grade Health. The basketball team shaved their heads. During the Talent Show dress rehearsal Kristin B's skirt fell off. We had the 7th grade music class - Jim F. threw up in Mrs. Rodriguez's class. Liz W. went into the goal instead of the ball in field hockey. We had to do table captains - A toothpick cost $5,000 in science. Ms. Hendrickson was learning everyone's name. Mr. Stern always used Lechmere as an example. Bethany and Joey L. started the non-walk out - Mike B. dog came into music class (7th grade). Mr. Grant called Eric D. Pinical Boy. Mr. Stern was having a hissy with the computer at yearbook. Lindsay was the role of Ivana in "Li Abner." We finally got a soda machine. The football team had a good season. We had a tea party after our manners unit with Mrs. Davidson in seventh grade. Mrs. Howe was pregnant. Mrs. Cotter was trying to teach everyone how to do the moonwalk. Julia C. had pink plastic glasses. Angie Dubac didn't like swimming, now she's a fish!

-Cembe and Mike H. had a flirting bet. Jen L. went on strike in Computer. Sarah F. and Kelly O. had the bright green costumes in the talent show in 6th grade. Peter U. and Jim got sick because of the lip gloss in locker 65. The people came from Newton for chorus. Claudia said she had left her backpack at an away game, so Mr. Wensstrom went looking all over for it and it turned out to be in our locker room.

Tim G. fell off the stool and table in science. We had the amazing 1993 TALENT SHOW. Mr. Leone had hair. The 8th graders seemed so big. Mr. Wensstrom grew a beard. Mrs. Davidson threw Peter U.'s bag out the door. Drew got stuck in the locker in 6th grade. We had all those snow days. Kirsten S. killed a dog in French. Liz W. and Gladys accidentally kissed in the hallway. High School seemed so far away.

Little bunny foo-foo hopping though the forest, picking up the field mice and bopping them on the head. Down came the good fire chief and she said.....

Gotta love me!

I love palace life, and my servants love me!

You can't have this lunch, it's MINE, ALL MINE!
Quick, somebody help put my head back on. It fell off during a math test.

Gimme a break. Why doesn't she tell them the truth?

...on behalf of the panel, I would like to say...
